Financial Aid

Financial aid is available on an as-needed basis. There are two sources of aid available:

St. Andrew School Financial Aid: All financial aid applications are being handled through FACTS. To submit an application, go to Facts and follow the directions there. Our policy is to require that all families contribute something toward their tuition; if a family finds this impossible, they should indicate these circumstances in their letter of application. Applications must be submitted by April 15, 2017:

ACE Scholarships: ACE Scholarships is a Denver, Colorado non-profit organization. They provide partial tuition scholarships to low-income children in grades K-12 through charitable contributions from private citizens, corporations and foundations. Their website is www.acescholarships.org. This website provides information only. To obtain and ACE application, please visit the school office. These applications must be completed and returned to the office by April 15th, 2017.
